PART II Employment Agency Services

3. NOTIFICATION AND FEES

- 3.1. The Client agrees:
- (i) To notify the Agency immediately of any offer of an Engagement which it makes to the Applicant; and
 - (ii) To notify the Agency immediately that its offer of an Engagement to the Applicant has been accepted and to provide details of the Remuneration to the Agency; and
 - (iii) To pay the Agency's fee within 14 days of the date of invoice.
- 3.2. Except in the circumstances set out in clause 5.1 below, no fee is incurred by the Client until the Applicant commences the Engagement when the Agency will render an invoice to the Client for its fees.
- 3.3. The fee payable to the Agency by the Client for an Introduction resulting in an Engagement is the amount indicated in Table 10.1 and is based on the Remuneration applicable during the first 12 months of the Engagement.
- 3.4. In the event that the Engagement is for a fixed term of less than 26 weeks, the rate for the fee paid weekly/monthly (as indicated in table 10.2) applies according to the actual duration of the Engagement. If the Engagement is extended beyond the initial fixed term or if the Client re-engages the Applicant within 6 calendar months (or 24 calendar months - if the Applicant is a company or enterprise or self-employed subcontractor) from the date of termination of the first Engagement the Client shall be liable to pay a further fee based on the additional Remuneration applicable for the period of Engagement following the initial fixed term up to the termination of the second Engagement or until 6 months from its commencement, whichever is the sooner.
- 3.5. If the Client subsequently engages or re-engages the Applicant within the period of 6 calendar months (or 24 calendar months - if the Applicant is a company or an enterprise or self-employed subcontractor) from the date of termination of the Engagement or withdrawal of the offer, a full fee calculated in accordance with clause 3.3 above becomes payable.
- 3.6. Parties may agree that the introduction fee will be paid on a weekly/monthly basis for the term of the Engagement of the introduced worker, as indicated in table 10.2. In such case the refund schedule, as detailed in section 4 and 9, does not apply. When the worker has not worked a full week, the fee should be reduced in proportion to the days worked. The Fee becomes also payable if the Client subsequently engages or re-engages the Applicant within a period of 6 calendar months (or 24 calendar months - if the Applicant is a company or enterprise or self-employed subcontractor) from the date of termination of the last Engagement or withdrawal of the offer. This method of payment is applicable only with the written agreement between parties, otherwise the standard method of payment as described in clause 3.3 above is applicable.
- 3.7. If it was agreed with the Client that the Introduction Fee will be paid on a weekly/monthly basis as described in clause 3.6 above, the Client can decide to change it into a single payment as described in clause 3.3 above. The amount of that fee is indicated in Table 10.1, discounted according to the discount schedule indicated in Table 9.3, depending on the length of Engagement of the Applicant, where the Introduction Fee was already paid on a weekly/monthly basis. Any fees paid on the weekly/monthly basis will be not deducted.
- 3.8. For avoidance of doubt, if the Client declares that the Applicant is not suitable, but the Client does not terminate the Engagement or engages the Applicant on a different position, no refund or discount applies, except the potential fee difference resulting from the change of the Remuneration. In such case standard fee calculated in accordance with clause 3.3 above becomes payable, without any discounts or rebates.

4. REFUNDS

- 4.1. In order to qualify for the following refund, the Client must pay the Agency's fee within 14 days of the date of invoice and must notify the Agency in writing of the termination of the Engagement within seven days of its termination.
- 4.2. If the Engagement terminates before the expiry of 10 weeks from the commencement of the Engagement (except where the Applicant is made redundant) the fee will be refunded in accordance with the accompanying Scale of Refund set out the schedule to these Terms of Business. 4.3. In circumstances where clause 3.5 applies the full fee stated in clause 3.3 is payable and there shall be no entitlement to a refund.

5. CANCELLATION FEE

- 5.1. If, after an offer of Engagement has been made to the Applicant, the Client decides for any reason to withdraw it, the Client shall be liable to pay the Agency a fee of 10% of the annual Remuneration. For avoidance of doubt, the Client's request is not an offer of Engagement, until the job offer for particular Applicants or particular groups of Applicants is confirmed.

6. INTRODUCTIONS

6.1. Introductions of Applicants are confidential. The disclosure by the Client to a third party of any details regarding an Applicant introduced by the Agency which results in an Engagement with that third party within six months of the Introduction renders the Client liable to payment of the Agency's fee as set out in clause 3.3 with no entitlement to any refund.

6.2. An introduction fee calculated in accordance with clause 3.3 will be charged in relation to any Applicant engaged as a consequence of or resulting from an introduction by or through the Agency, whether direct or indirect, within six months from the date of the Agency's Introduction.

6.3. Where the amount of the actual Remuneration is not known the Agency will charge a fee calculated in accordance with clause 3.3 on the minimum level of remuneration applicable for the position in which the Applicant has been engaged with regard to any information supplied to the Agency by the Client and/or comparable positions in the market generally for such positions.

6.4. In the event that any employee of the Agency with whom the Client has had personal dealings accepts an Engagement with the Client within 6 months of leaving the Agency's employment, the Client shall be liable to pay an introduction fee to the Agency in accordance with clause 3.3.

6.5. If the Applicant is a company, any direct or indirect Engagement or hire of the Applicant or its employees or subcontractors requires prior consent of the Agency. If the Client engages or hires such Applicant or its employees or subcontractors without Agency's consent, the Client shall be liable to pay a fee of 500% of the standard Introduction Fee.

7. SUITABILITY AND REFERENCES

7.1. The Agency endeavours to ensure the suitability of any Applicant introduced to the Client by obtaining confirmation of the Applicant's identity; that the Applicant has the experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation which the Client considers necessary or which may be required by law or by any professional body; and that the Applicant is willing to work in the position which the Client seeks to fill.

7.2. At the same time as proposing an Applicant to the Client the Agency shall inform the Client of such matters in clause 7.1 as they have obtained confirmation of. Where such information is not given in paper form or by electronic means it shall be confirmed by such means by the end of the third business day (excluding Saturday, Sunday and any public or Bank holiday) following save where the Applicant is being proposed for a position which is the same as one in which the Applicant has worked within the previous five business days and such information has already been given to the Client.

7.3. The Agency endeavours to take all such steps as are reasonably practicable to:

(i) ensure that the Client and Applicant are aware of any requirements imposed by law or any professional body to enable the Applicant to work in the position which the Client seeks to fill;

(ii) ensure that it would not be detrimental to the interests of either the Client or the Applicant for the Applicant to work in the position which the Client seeks to fill.

7.4. Notwithstanding clauses 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 above the Client shall satisfy itself as to the suitability of the Applicant and the Client shall take up any references provided by the Applicant to it or the Agency before engaging such Applicant. The Client is responsible for obtaining work permits and/or such other permission to work as may be required, for the arrangement of medical examinations and/or investigations into the medical history of any Applicant, and satisfying any medical and other requirements, qualifications or permission required by law of the country in which the Applicant is engaged to work.

7.5. To enable the Agency to comply with its obligations under clauses 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 above the Client undertakes to provide to the Agency details of the position which the Client seeks to fill, including the type of work that the Applicant would be required to do; the location and hours of work; the experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation which the Client considers necessary or which are required by law or any professional body for the Applicant to possess in order to work in the position; and any risks to health or safety known to the Client and what steps the Client has taken to prevent or control such risks. In addition the Client shall provide details of the date the Client requires the Applicant to commence, the duration or likely duration of the work; the minimum rate of remuneration, expenses and any other benefits that would be offered; the intervals of payment of remuneration and the length of notice that the Applicant would be entitled to give and receive to terminate the employment with the Client.

7.6. The Client undertakes to immediately inform the Agency of any change of any employment condition, by telephone/email and additionally in writing as soon as is practicable. If the employment conditions are changed after Engagement of the Applicant, the refund schedule, as detailed in section 9, does not apply. If, after an offer of Engagement has been made to the Applicant, the Client changes the employment conditions, the cancellation fee as detailed in section 5 may apply.

8. LIABILITY

8.1. The Agency shall not be liable under any circumstances for any loss, expense, damage, delay, costs or compensation (whether direct, indirect or consequential) which may be suffered or incurred by the Client arising from or in any way connected with the Agency seeking an Applicant for the Client or from the Introduction to or Engagement of any Applicant by the Client or from the failure of the Agency to introduce any Applicant. For the avoidance of doubt, the Agency does not exclude liability for death or personal injury arising from its own negligence.

9.1. The following scale of refund only applies in the event that the Client complies with the provisions of clause 3.1 of these Terms of Business.

If the Client agrees to those rates, they will apply in the case of the Applicants mentioned, for the calculation of other Introduction and Transfer Fees.

10.4. In cases where the Client's offer of employment submitted includes a worker pay rate lower than a fair rate commonly accepted in case of the position of Applicant, the Agency reserves the right to refuse to accept the order, or to offer the Customer a commission rate based on a fair value pay, as well as to reduce or cancel the period in which the Client is entitled to a refund, if due to low pay, there might be a greater risk of Applicant's leaving jobs.

10.5. VAT will be charged on the fees as shown in clauses 10.1 and 10.2 if applicable.

PART III

Temporary service – Employment Business

11. CHARGES

11.1. The Client agrees to pay such hourly charges of the Agency as shall be notified to and agreed with the Client. The hourly charges are calculated according to the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker (to the nearest quarter hour) and comprise mainly the Temporary Worker's pay but also include the Agency' commission calculated as a percentage of the Temporary Worker's pay, Holiday Pay, Employer's National Insurance contributions and any travel, hotel or other expenses as may have been agreed with the Client or, if there is no such agreement, such expenses as are reasonable. VAT, if applicable, is payable on the entirety of these charges.

11.2. The Agency has right to change the price given in the offer if, due to the law or any other regulatory changes or the legal status of the Temporary Worker(s), the cost of employment of the Temporary Worker(s) increases (for example changes to the minimum wage, obligatory holiday pay, etc.). The change of price for the employment business service will be in proportion to the changes of the costs carried by the Agency. Any such changes will not require the drawing of a separate contract. The Agency will send to the Client detailed information of any price changes and of the nature of those changes.

11.3. The Agency's commission is calculated per job/employee and the rate is never lower than the Introduction fee when paid weekly/monthly, as described in clause 10.2.

11.4. The charges are invoiced to the Client on a weekly basis and are payable within 5 days.

11.5. There are no rebates payable in respect of the charges of the Agency unless clause 17.1 has been invoked in full and then a 50% rebate will be applied.

12. INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED

12.1. When making an Introduction of a Temporary Worker to the Client the Agency shall inform the Client of the identity of the Temporary Worker; that the Temporary Worker has the necessary or required experience, training, qualifications and any authorisation required by law or a professional body to work in the Assignment; whether the Temporary Worker will be employed by the Agency under a contract of service or apprenticeship or a contract for services; and that the Temporary Worker is willing to work in the Assignment.

12.2. Where such information is not given in paper form or by electronic means it shall be confirmed by such means by the end of the third business day (excluding Saturday, Sunday and any public or Bank holiday) following, save where the Temporary Worker is being Introduced for an Assignment in the same position as one in which the Temporary Worker had previously been supplied within the previous five business days and such information has already been given to the Client, unless the Client requests that the information be resubmitted.

12.3. The Client undertakes to immediately inform the Agency of any change of any employment condition (e.g. work location), by telephone/email and additionally in writing as soon as is practicable. The client is not allowed to change any employment condition of Temporary Worker without the written agreement of the Agency.

13. TIME SHEETS

13.1. At the end of each week of an Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where it is for a period of one week or less) the Client shall sign the Agency' time sheet verifying the number of hours worked by the Temporary Worker during that week.

13.2. The signature of the time sheet by the Client is confirmation of the number of hours worked. If the Client is unable to sign a time sheet produced for authentication by the Temporary Worker because the Client disputes the hours claimed, the Client shall inform the Agency as soon as is reasonably practicable and shall co-operate fully and in a timely fashion with the Agency to enable the Agency to establish what hours, if any, were worked by the Temporary Worker. Failure to sign the time sheet does not absolve the Client's obligation to pay the charges in respect of the hours worked.

13.3. The Client shall not be entitled to decline to sign a timesheet on the basis that he is dissatisfied with the work performed by the Temporary Worker. In cases of unsuitable work the Client should apply the provisions of clause 17.1 below.

14. PAYMENT OF THE TEMPORARY WORKER

14.1. The Agency assumes responsibility for paying the Temporary Worker and where appropriate, for the deduction and payment of National Insurance Contributions and PAYE Income Tax applicable to the Temporary Worker pursuant to sections 44-47 of the Income Tax (Earnings and Pensions) Act 2003.

15. TRANSFER AND INTRODUCTION FEES

15.1. In the event of the Engagement by the Client of a Temporary Worker supplied by the Agency either (1) directly or (2) pursuant to being supplied by another employment business, within either the duration of the Assignment; or 14 weeks from the start of the first Assignment (the first Assignment being each new assignment where there has been a break of more than 42 days (6 weeks) since the end of the previous Assignment); or 8 weeks from the day after the last day the Temporary Worker worked on the Assignment the Client shall be liable, to either:

- (i) Subject to electing, upon giving 5 days notice to the Agency, an extended period of hire of the Temporary Worker being 26 weeks, during which the client shall pay the current hourly charge agreed pursuant to clause 11.1 above for each hour the Temporary Worker is so employed or supplied; or
- (ii) A Transfer Fee payable to the Agency by the Client is the amount indicated in Table 10.1 and is based on the 12 months Remuneration of the Temporary Worker, calculated using the average rate applicable during the period of Assignment, discounted according to the discount schedule indicated in Table 9.3, depending on the length of the Assignment for which the Client hired the Temporary Worker. VAT will be charged if applicable.

However, where the client does not give such notice before the Temporary Worker is engaged the parties agree that the Transfer Fee shall be due.

15.2. In the event that there is an Introduction of a Temporary Worker to the Client which does not result in the supply of that Temporary Worker by the Agency to the Client, but which leads to an Engagement by the Client of the Temporary Worker either directly or pursuant to being supplied by another employment business within 6 months (or 24 months - if the Temporary Worker is a company or enterprise or self-employed subcontractor) the Client shall be liable, to either:

- (i) Subject to electing, upon giving 5 days notice to the Agency, an extended period of hire of the Temporary Worker being 26 weeks, during which the Agency shall be entitled to the charges agreed pursuant to clause 11.1 above for each hour the Temporary Worker is so employed or supplied; or
- (ii) An Introduction Fee payable to the Agency by the Client for an Introduction resulting in an Engagement, which is the amount indicated in Table 10.1 and is based on the Remuneration applicable during the first 12 months of the Engagement. VAT will be charged on the fee if applicable.

However, where the client does not give such notice before the Temporary Worker is engaged the parties agree that the Introduction Fee shall be due.

15.3. In the event that the Engagement of the Temporary Worker is for a fixed term of less than 12 months, the fee in clause 15.1.(ii) or 15.2.(ii), calculated as a percentage of the Remuneration, will apply pro-rata. If the Engagement is extended beyond the initial fixed term or if the Client re-engages the Temporary Worker within 6 months (or 24 months - if the Applicant is a company or enterprise or self-employed subcontractor) of the termination of the first Engagement the Client shall be liable to pay a further fee based on the additional Remuneration applicable for the period of Engagement following the initial fixed term of Engagement.

15.4. If the Client elects for an extended period of hire, as set out above, but before the end of such period Engages the Temporary Worker supplied by the Agency either directly or pursuant to being supplied by another employment business or the Temporary Worker chooses not to be supplied for an extended period of hire, the Introduction Fee calculated in accordance with either 15.1.(ii) or 15.2.(ii) may be charged, reduced by such percentage to reflect the period of extended hire already undertaken by the Temporary Worker and paid for by the Client.

15.5. In the event that a Temporary Worker supplied to the Client is introduced by the Client to a third party which results in the Engagement of the Temporary Worker by the third party within either the duration of the Assignment; 14 weeks from the start of the first Assignment (each new assignment where there has been a break of more than 42 days (6 weeks) since the end of the previous Assignment shall also be considered to be the 'first Assignment' for these purposes); or 8 weeks from the day after the last day the Temporary Worker worked for the Client; the client shall be liable to pay a Transfer Fee as indicated in Table 10.1 above based on the Remuneration applicable during the first 12 months of the Engagement. No refund of the Transfer Fee will be paid in the event that the Engagement subsequently terminates. VAT is payable in addition to any fee due, if applicable.

15.6. In the event that there is an introduction of a Temporary Worker to the Client which does not result in the supply of that Temporary Worker by the Agency to the Client, but the Temporary Worker is introduced by the Client to a third party which results in the Engagement of the Temporary Worker by the third party within 6 months (or 24 months - if the Applicant is a company or enterprise or self-employed subcontractor) from the date of Introduction, the Client shall be liable to an Introduction Fee as indicated in Table 10.1. No refund of the Introduction Fee will be paid in the event that the Engagement subsequently terminates. VAT is payable in addition to any fee due, if applicable.

15.7. If the Temporary Worker is a company, any direct or indirect Engagement or hire of the Temporary Worker or its employees or subcontractors requires prior consent of the Agency. If the Client engages or hires such Temporary Worker or its employees or subcontractors without Agency' consent, the Client shall be liable to pay a fee of 500% of the standard Introduction Fee.

15.8. For avoidance of doubt, the termination of the Assignment by the Agency does not absolve the Client's obligation to pay the Transfer Fee, if it is payable according to the clauses above.

16. LIABILITY

16.1. Whilst every effort is made by the Agency to give satisfaction to the Client by ensuring reasonable standards of skills, integrity and reliability from Temporary Workers and further to provide them in accordance with the Client's booking details, the Agency is not liable for any loss, expense, damage or delay arising from any failure to provide any Temporary Worker for all or part of the period of booking or from the negligence, dishonesty, misconduct or lack of skill of the Temporary Worker. For the avoidance of doubt, the Agency does not exclude liability for death or personal injury arising from its own negligence.

16.2. Temporary Workers supplied by the Agency are engaged under contracts for services. They are the employees of the Agency but are deemed to be under the supervision, direction and control of the Client from the time they report to take up duties and for the duration of the Assignment. The Client agrees to be responsible for all acts, errors or omissions of the Temporary Worker, whether wilful, negligent or otherwise as though the Temporary Worker was on the payroll of the Client. The Client will also comply in all respects with all statutes including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Working Time Regulations, Health and Safety At Work Act etc., by-laws, codes of practice and legal requirements to which the Client is ordinarily subject in respect of the Client's own staff (excluding the matters specifically mentioned in clause 14 above).

16.3. The Client agrees to be liable for the Temporary Workers' actions as if the Temporary Worker was an employee of the Client (excluding the matters specifically mentioned in clause 14 above). In particular, but not necessarily limited to, The Client is responsible for the provision of adequate Employer's and Public Liability Insurance cover for the Temporary Worker during all Assignments. The lack or invalidity of any such insurance does not exclude of Client's liability. The Client shall prove the provision of suitable and adequate insurance by submission of copies of all relevant insurance certificates.

16.4. The Client shall advise the Agency of any special health and safety matters about which the Agency is required to inform the Temporary Worker and about any requirements imposed by law or by any professional body, which must be satisfied if the Temporary Worker is to fill the Assignment. The Client will assist the Agency in complying with the Agency' duties under the Working Time Regulations by supplying any relevant information about the Assignment requested by the Agency and the Client will not do anything to cause the Agency to be in breach of its obligations under these Regulations. Where the Client requires or may require the services of a Temporary Worker for more than 48 hours in any week, the Client must notify the Agency of this requirement before the commencement of that week.

16.5. The Client confirms that it knows of no reason why it would be detrimental to the interests of the Temporary Worker for the Temporary Worker to fill the Assignment.

16.6. The Client shall indemnify and keep indemnified the Agency against any costs, claims or liabilities incurred by the Agency arising out of any Assignment or arising out of any non-compliance with clauses 16.2, 16.3 and 16.4 and/or as a result of any breach of these Terms by the Client.

17. TERMINATION

17.1. The Client undertakes to supervise the Temporary Worker sufficiently to ensure the Client's satisfaction with the Temporary Worker's standards of workmanship. If the Client reasonably considers that the services of the Temporary Worker are unsatisfactory, the Client may terminate the Assignment either by instructing the Temporary Worker to leave the Assignment immediately, or by directing the Agency to remove the Temporary Worker. The Agency may, in such circumstances, reduce or cancel the charges for the time worked by that Temporary Worker, provided that the Assignment terminates (i) within four hours of the Temporary Worker commencing the Assignment where the booking is for more than seven hours; or (ii) within two hours for bookings of seven hours or less; and also provided that notification of the unsuitability of the Temporary Worker is confirmed in writing to the Agency within 48 hours of the termination of the Assignment.

17.2. Subject to clauses 17.2.1, 17.2.2, 17.2.3 and 17.2.4, any of the Client, the Agency or the Temporary Worker may terminate an Assignment at any time without prior notice and without liability.

17.2.1. If, after a job offer to the Temporary Worker or to the group of Temporary Workers has been confirmed by the Client, the Client decides to withdraw from the Assignment or during the Assignment terminates it significantly before the previously declared date, the Client may be liable to pay the Agency a cancellation fee of 10% of the Agency' remuneration which would be payable in the period from the date of the termination or withdrawal from the Assignment to the previously declared end date.

17.2.2. For avoidance of doubt, the Client's request is not a job offer and does not declare the period of Assignment, until the job offer for particular Temporary Worker or particular groups of Temporary Workers is confirmed.

17.2.3. For avoidance of doubt, the significant abridgement of the period of the Assignment is if its duration is shorter than 50% of previously declared period, unless the period after abridgement was longer than 10 weeks.

17.2.4. The cancellation fee does not apply, except where the Temporary Worker or group of Temporary Workers are made redundant:

- (i) for situations described in clause 17.1;
